PURE PYTHAGORAS

OH, yes, the whole thing is pure Pythagoras. I mean it's Pythagoras's system. He invented it in the sixth century B.C. Just think of it! And men like Jeans and Eddington have just caught up with him; caught up with their atomic theories, I mean. For of course it's nothing but the atomic theory. We're all atoms in the Great Plan, vibrating to our own special vibrations, and the clue to where we are on The Path, and how we are vibrating and how we should vibrate, is in our name and birth date. It makes everything so clear! Like Rockefeller. You can see how Rockefeller simply couldn't avoid making money in oil. The word "oil" vibrates to his vowels! Or like Henry Ford—well, it's simply astounding. His name totals 5 and so does "automobile," and yet the word "Ford," which is his own name, is a 7 and "car" is a 4, and together they make 11. That's a Master Number, and you know where Ford and his car are now.

Oh, it's too fascinating! I got interested in science (and this absolutely is science) last winter, when I had my operation. Margaret Roger sent me a book called "Do You Know Your Own Number?" It would be Margaret Roger who sent me the book and started me on The Path, because the name Margaret is 11 and Roger is 9, the numbers of mystics and humanitarians. Anyway, it has just made my life over. I find myself analyzing people all the time—on the back of envelopes, on the telephone pad. For instance, I'll suddenly think "Grace. Now, what is Grace's number? What accounts for the way she is always late, always breaking engagements?" I work out Grace and I begin to see it all—see her karmic lesson, what she is here to learn, what she has carried over from past lives. It makes for such close understanding, if you know what I mean. Like when Grace keeps me waiting one hour and a half at Schrafft's for lunch and ends by not appearing at all, I can just say to myself, "Well, it's the negative aspects of the 7 working in Grace, that's all. It's the same thing that keeps her from appreciating the finer things in life."

ELOISE FISKE? An Old Soul? She told you she was an Old Soul? Oh, that's too priceless! Eloise would. I suppose she told you all about her 11's, all about how the 11's are the Teachers of the Race and all that sort of thing. She loves telling people about her high numbers. Well, it's perfectly true. She has got high numbers. She was born with a lot of 11's, and that definitely makes her an Old Soul. But let me tell you there's something more to being an Old Soul than just carrying a high vibration and teaching the race. It can also mean that you've got plenty to pay off out of former lives. Now, look at the case of both the Fiskes—since you've brought up the subject of Eloise. They've both got 5 birth paths, haven't they? Oh, yes, yes, indeed, but Eloise never mentions that 5 path of hers. She's much too busy talking about her 11's. And besides a 5 path, Everett Fiske has 5's in his name vibrations. But the difference in the way those two people are living their 5's is what makes the high and low vibrations in exactly the same numbers look so pathetic. Because it's perfectly plain that Eloise's 5 is karmic. Karmic! Heaven knows what she did in a past life, but it must have been plenty. She's an Old Soul, all right, but it's pretty obvious that she's paying off an old debt, and paying it off, what's more, at the expense of poor Everett's vibrations. Oh, it's as simple as two and two, really. And frankly—I don't like to say it, but then you know Eloise as well as I do, and nothing I could say would surprise you, but it might interest you to see how numbers can absolutely prove just exactly what one knows to be true about a person—well, that 5 path is Eloise's Sex Problem. There it is, plain as day. Just look at it! Of course, as I said, Everett has a lot of 5's and a 5 path also—but heavens! he's living the life of the Pentagon in the highest sense. Putting up with Eloise's wildness, for instance. Oh, yes, Everett may be a Young Soul, is of course a Young Soul, but the way he's carrying that 5 of his makes me absolutely certain that he'll come back an Old Soul. I'm willing to bet you that Everett Fiske in his next life will be vibrating entirely to 11 and 22, and he will certainly have earned them if anyone ever did. And Eloise—well, of course I'm no prophet, but I do shudder sometimes when I think of the vibrations Eloise will be carrying when she incarnates again.
